

Abstract of the Disclosure

A service system stores membership qualification conditions of a plurality of services.

5 The service system selects a service that a user can use from those and displays the selected service. The service system references information of another service of which a user has already become a member and performs a membership

10 qualification of the user on behalf of a server of each service.